cs4400_phase1_assumptions_team106

1. each Store must employ at least one Store worker
2. each Store must own at least one Drone
3. line_weight, which is the attribute of line, is calculated by the weight (attribute of product) and the quantity (attribute of line).
4. The unit price of each product can vary among different stores, so the unit price is the attribute of include relationship (it can vary among different order).